EuropaCorp signs a partnership on music publishing with Sony/ATV

EuropaCorp Group has sold its catalogue of music copyrights to Sony/ATV Group, the world number one music publishing company, and has signed an agreement for Sony/ATV to administer its music royalties for future film and television titles.

This sale concerns approximately 1.500 titles linked to more than 100 films including the music of movies like the Taken trilogy or Lucy starring Scarlett Johansson but also scores from bands like Archive or Massive Attack, and composers like Eric Serra and Alexandre Desplat.

The transaction price is 14.550.000 euros to which an additional amount of two million euros may be added depending on results.

ABOUT EUROPACORP

EuropaCorp is one of Europe's leading film studios. Founded in 1999, EuropaCorp has operations spanning production, theatrical distribution, video and VOD, and French TV sales. EuropaCorp also has international rights, partnerships and licensing, production and soundtrack publishing activities. The Group has also been producing TV series since 2010. EuropaCorp's integrated business model allows it to benefit from diversified sources of revenue. With a line-up boasting various types of films and a very strong foothold in international markets, the Group has produced France's biggest international hits in recent years. In 2014, EuropaCorp entered direct distribution for its films in the United States. EuropaCorp was founded by French filmmaker, screenwriter and producer Luc Besson. The Group owns a catalogue of 500 movies.
