PRESS RELEASE

Opening of a safeguard proceeding for debt restructuring and end of trading suspension on Euronext Paris

Saint-Denis, May 13 2019 – In its ruling of May 13 2019, the Commercial Court of Bobigny opened a safeguard proceeding for the company EuropaCorp S.A for a 6 months initial period.

The Board and the management of EuropaCorp considered that the safeguard proceeding would enable the negotiation of the terms of a financial stabilization of the company via the restructuration of its debt and equity, while continuing its activity serenely.

The opened safeguard proceeding includes all company liabilities and not only financial debt.

The opening of the safeguard proceeding was prepared with its senior and junior lenders who gave their assent for such procedure by granting EuropaCorp a waiver, which is rare.

In due time, the company will inform the market of the outcome of the negotiations it intends to continue with the lenders and other potential investors.

Trading in EuropaCorp shares on Euronext Paris (ISIN : FR0010490920), which had been suspended on May 6 after market closing, will resume on May 14 at market opening.
